When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.
If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.
A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

TELEGRAMS

(To the "Prensa".)

London, 4th.—The Vienna correspondent of the Chronicle says that the authorities at Baku are doing nothing to prevent the spreading of cholera. The Times correspondent in St. Petersburg says that the epidemic has now reached European Russia. Steamers that are suspected of being infected are no longer allowed to run in the Caspian Sea or Volga river.

Some policemen were killed in the tax riots at Madrid on Saturday.

It is said in Berlin that Count Munster, German Ambassador in Paris, has expressed to M. Ribot a desire for an amicable agreement about the proposed German Exhibition.

Advices from Calcutta say that great anxiety is felt there about the disturbances in Afghanistan, especially since the fight on the frontier, at Pendjen.

The divers find that the steamer City of Chicago is firmly stuck on the rocks at Queenstown, and much injured.

Dublin, 4th.—There was further rioting in the north of the County Louth yesterday. When Tim Healy tried to speak his party were attacked by the Parnellites and many were injured.

The riot in Limerick while William O'Brien was speaking lasted for some hours.

Rome, 4th.—The Vatican organs deny that the Pope has tried to influence the elections in Ireland.

Berlin, 4th.—Twenty persons were injured last night in a railway collision near Charlottenberg station. Some of them are expected to succumb.

St. Petersburg, 4th.—Scarcity of food is again felt in the Interior: and dealers in wheat are buying it up at high prices. The Czar is expected to take energetic steps in the matter.

("To Correo Español.")

St. Petersburg, 3rd.—The Ameer's troops have not moved since their recent defeat. Khan Uniza continues to advance to the South and East, is already master of all the defiles in the Pandscha valley, and has arrived with a strong force at Wachan, north of the Kurakoman mountains, and only a few miles from the Indian frontier. It is absolutely false that the Khan's troops are commanded by officers of the Russian army.

THE RIO GRANDE REVOLUTION.

Porto Alegre, 3rd.—General Tavares is still in Bagé. He cannot get out. General Isidoro Fernandez is gathering his forces near Livramento, where he awaits the arrival of Generals H. Rodriguez and Lima and Colonels Firmino, Portugal and others. Owing to the swollen condition of the Arroyos and the wretched condition of the horses, the troops have been compelled to move very slowly. A detachment of 600 men sent from Bagé by General Tavares was defeated by a Republican detachment. It is generally believed that Tavares will surrender.

The rebels have destroyed the railway from Bagé to Rio Grande.

Rumors are flying about in reference to a serious engagement near Livramento, but nothing is known for certain. At Arroyo Grande the Federals were defeated and their leader, Marques, was killed.

Rio Janeiro, 4th.—Telegrams from San Paulo state that, on the occasion of a meeting of Italian residents to protest against the recent events in Santos, serious disturbances broke out and the federal troops had to interfere. Several Italians were killed, and the offices of the Italian paper Roma destroyed.

MAILS FROM CHILE.

Valparaiso, June 8th.

Although the downfall of the Ministry was not unexpected it has, nevertheless, created a very disagreeable impression. Almost before the echoes of the President's speech had died away, the Ministers who had assisted in the preparation of that speech have been compelled to retire from office. Their retirement places the President in a very awkward position. He cannot very well go back on the promises he has just solemnly made to the country. And yet, it remains to be seen whether or no he will be able to find new Ministers who will be willing to accept the pledges just given to the Nation. There are very great difficulties in his way, and he may find some of them to be insurmountable. In such a case the brilliant programme he has just presented to the country will be more or less mutilated.

It is greatly to be feared that one of the presidential pledges that will have to be sacrificed to the political exigencies of the moment will be the one relating to the return to a metallic currency. If this should happen a very bad effect will be produced both at home and abroad. Confidence in the stability of the country, which was beginning to revive on the strength of the President's speech, would be rudely shaken, and a period of still greater depression than that under which we are now labouring would be inaugurated. It is, therefore, devoutly to be desired that the President will not, except in the event of direst necessity, sacrifice the pledge he has given with respect to the currency. He may, perhaps, be able to avert this sacrifice by again confiding the portfolio of Finance to Mr. Edwards. This gentleman formed no part of the fighting element of the Matte Cabinet, therefore, it ought not to be a difficult task to organise a Ministry which would be willing to accept him as the incumbent of the Department of Finance. And it would not, we should think, be a difficult matter to persuade him to accept the portfolio of Finance in a Coalition Cabinet. He is the author of the scheme propounded in the President's speech for dealing with the currency, therefore, it is only natural to suppose that he would like to be in a position to carry it out. If an arrangement can be made by which his services as Minister of Finance can be secured, then the currency scheme is safe.

A few nights ago a gang of bandits attacked the house of Don Vicente Valdes at La Palmilla, and forced their way into the premises. Once inside they seized the owner, and suspended him by the arms from a beam and burnt his face with pieces of lighted charcoal to make him confess the hiding-place of his money. A brother of the owner was shot in two places and was seriously injured. The robbers obtained possession of 190 dols. in money, and they carried off a booty worth 300 dollars more.

The sub-delegate of Nirivilo was on his way here a few days ago, accompanied for greater security by a constable, and late in the afternoon he came upon the dead body of a man who had been recently shot. While examining the body, he and his companion were fired at several times but fortunately without being hit. They then descried among some bush a man who began to signal by whistling, and the signals were answered from a hill. As night was already setting in the sub-delegate sought and obtained refuge in the first house he came to, and did not resume his journey till the following day. The sub-delegate is of opinion that the dead man was a bandit, who had received his quietus from comrades.

A terrible accident occurred on the racecourse at Iquique on Sunday. It appears that at one period during the late war the general park of ammunition was kept on the course, and some shells were omitted to be removed when the contest was over, and they have lain there ever since partly covered with rubbish. On Sunday a mechanic, named Charles Fiese, in the employ of the Water Works, took hold of one of these shells and was examining it, when it exploded and literally blew the unfortunate man to pieces. His head was separated from the trunk and was blown to shreds, and the left leg was carried to a distance of forty metres. The victim's clothing was set on fire and was completely consumed. Two men who who were near to the spot were also dangerously injured.

A fireman, named Francisco Hidalgo, employed on the express train, was on the night of the 29th ult., proceeding from the station to his home, accompanied by his wife, and just before arriving at Puentes Grandes he heard footsteps coming from the contrary direction. He raised a lantern he was carrying to see who it was who was approaching when three shots were fired at him in succession, the last taking effect in his head, and so seriously injuring him that he died on the following morning in the Hospital. The man who fired the shots is an Italian, named Oscar Giovanni. He stayed at the Hotel Garibaldi the night of the murder, but left early on the following morning for the Cordillera, en route for the Argentine Republic. A telephonic message was sent to Soldado ordering his arrest.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

WHITSUNTIDE SCRAPS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

June 4th.

You will be sick of me. I wrote yesterday and the day before and once early in the week and sent you clouds of printed copy which, according to Mr. Justice North's ruling, you will be prosecuted for publishing. Yes, has not Soames — you remember Soames — written to all the morning papers on behalf of his clients the Times, to say that all of them, with the exception of the Morning Post, have mistaken the point of Mr. Justice North's decision. The point seems to be that news is copyright. You need not be afraid; a reservation is made in regard to the age of the news and the cessation of interest in it; and, besides, the question of the form in which it is administered is still a nut unsuited to legal crackers—the legal mind. There is a dash of metaphysics in the subject a lawyer cannot handle. My opinion is that another case or two like Walter v. Steinkopff will settle the question over the heads of the lawyers and in a manner quite opposed to the hopes and genius of Mr. John Walter. The newspapers serve the public, and, if it is not served well, it will sooner or later ask the reason why. If monopolies stand in the way, they will go. Man was not made for the Sabbath. Lord Salisbury may think it was; and so may Paris bankers, and all bankers and Mr. Goschen. Now, mark how all things dovetail into one another; and how relevant is much of this seeming irrelevance. The Statist of to-day informs us on high authority that "the Tory cabinet is all sixes and sevens in regard to the question of Protection. Lord Salisbury's indiscretion at Hastings was part of a deliberate plan to encourage the Fair Traders," and stir up a more active agitation:

...."His recent escapade at Hastings has called forth condemnation and protest from his very staunchest supporters in the press, while it has evoked a solemn warning from the Liberal Unionists. Apparently he disregards these protests and looks upon the fair traders as better exponents of public opinion than the party journalists. But it is perfectly certain that, if he and those who think with him push the matter very far, they will break up the Conservative party and practically exclude it from office for the next generation."

I need not quote further the Statist's indignant comments from its free trading point of view. We know all about that. The men who crushed the fair trade movement in 1881 are some of them alive and are ready with their hands on their swords if the ludicrous monster again raises its head. What is of more present importance is to remember that this is no new idea of Lord Salisbury's adopted for electioneering purposes. In the very year, I think, I have just quoted I ventured to epitomise the arguments of the fair traders of that day or the benefit of your readers, and to the best of my recollection I had occasion to vilify Lord Salisbury for lending his authority to the craze. Lord Salisbury is not a fool, nor, as Mr. Gladstone calls him, 'a political incendiary'. He knows as well as you do the benefit to the masses of free trade; but it is the masses he fears. Not that as a confessed socialistically inclined man he would not give each individual amongst them a fowl in the pot; but what imagination he has, and it is not much, is filled with a dream of royalty and patrician grandeur as these things existed in the Old England he wants to revive as far as modern conditions will admit. It is his creed, a religion. We must not be harsh towards him; for many clever people have their phantasies born in them or acquired by early association. It is curious that in the same number of the Statist in which Lord Salisbury as a legislator is accused of converting otherwise innocent fancies into pernicious practical forms we read of a parallel case amongst the French bankers. I can remember the day when the Credit Foncier was looked askance at by sound British economists as a socialist institution. And it was so in some respects. It taught the Paris bankers to earn more than they did by extending their business amongst the masses and encouraging small deposits and making loans to small communes. It answered. The Credit Foncier and the bankers grew rich. At this moment there is terror amongst them. The old and honoured chief of the Credit Foncier, M. Christophle threatens to resign. And why? The Government — the State — just as on a timid Goschen — oppressed scale it has done in England — has followed suit and lends money to small people and to communes at a reduced rate of interest. That is to say, the State Savings Banks are the source of the evil. If this goes on the Credit Foncier and the bankers, and particularly at times like the present when money is so abundant, will not know how to employ their surplus funds. The bankers say with Lord Salisbury—"to benefit the masses is well, and we wish to do so, but to cut our own throats, to destroy our own class and the order of things that maintain it is more than can be demanded of us." So they are working to prevent the government from passing a proposed amendment to the Act which would increase the operations of the State savings banks—just as Goschen did in England. How relevant all this is, is n't it? All of a piece my dear friends if you take a birds eye view of it.

Bless me! it is nearly six o'clock. To-morrow is the Sabbath and Whitsun Monday is worse, for there will be no evening papers—no Star at all events. We are getting South American in our ideas of holidays, and I dare say we are all going to—the sea side or somewhere.

There is absolutely nothing to tell you about. The Star says Mrs. Montague will not be released. She is only removed to a Dublin prison from Coleraine or somewhere. Other papers say this remove is only preparatory to a release.

The German papers—though not the French—are becoming more sensible in their remarks on the Uganda affair and seem to understand the difficult position of the East Africa Company's Agent, Captain Lugard, situated as he is between protestant and catholic niggers barely emancipated from fetishism. The Germans, besides, have other fish to fry. The aspect of Europe is not more peaceable than it was.

BANKS, BANKS, BANKS.

(From the "Montevideo Times.")

The papers which were so busy inventing announcements about negotiations with the London Bank now announce that they have fallen through. This is not surprising, considering that they never existed.

Sr. Juan Barriga, to whom was attributed the representation of a syndicate of Cnilian capitalists in a negotiation for coining $2,000,000 in silver, has returned from Buenos Ayres, but nothing more has transpired as to his intentions.

It is said that Mr. Noetzlin is still holding conferences with the President.

The Government organs have left off exciting false hopes and now show an ominous silence, which helps to confirm our belief that Government has nothing in its portfolio.

The ordinary sittings of the Chambers must close on the 15th., and it does not seem probable that Government will propose any measures before then.

Dr. Angel Floro Costa, it is said, has no fewer than eight schemes ready for presentation, all dealing with the financial situation. The market does not seem to base much hope on them. The following is a summary of his lengthy scheme for the establisment of a new Bank, presented to the Senate on Friday:—

A committee of fifty prominent citizens and merchants (names given) to be appointed to organise a limited joint stock company for the foundation of the Bank of Uruguay. This Committee to invite all classes to subscribe to the new Bank, and also to open subscriptions abroad. The capital of the Bank to be $13,000,000, with power to double. This capital to be represented by 12,000 shares of $100 of which 6000 will be given to the Committee for their services. The Bank to be considered ready for instalment and election of directors when 70% of the capital is subscribed and 25% paid up. 10% of the shares to be paid on subscription, 15% in 90 days, and the rest as the Directors may determine, but the total to be paid up within 3 years. The domicile of the Bank to be in Montevideo. The Bank to lose all privileges on failure to convert. The Bank to have exclusive privilege of major and minor note issue in the Republic. All public offices to receive only metal or these notes whilst convertible. The minor issue may reach to 30% of its capital and be convertible in gold or silver at option of the Bank. The Bank to receive the judicial deposits, which, in case of insolvency or liquidation, shall form a preferential credit equally with the notes. The Bank may emit three times the amount of its capital, but shall always keep a reserve equal to not less than 40% of its deposits at sight and its major emission in circulation. The Bank to have the faculty of coining gold and silver money to the amount of its capital, in fixed proportions. The Bank to receive all revenues collected in the State offices in current account at interest, and to have preference in public debt service. The bank to allow Government to overdraw in current account, at interest and at judicious intervals, to extent of $1,500,000; it may also give credit to the Municipality and other constituted bodies, not exceeding half their estimated yearly revenue. The bank to be administered by a President and 9 directors elected at General Meeting. The President of the Bank to be appointed by the Executive with approval of the Senate, from 2 names presented by the Directors. He and half of the Directors must be citizens of the Republic. The Bank, to establish a Montepio, or public pawnbroking office. Of the profits of the Bank, 10% to go to reserve fund, 15% to the State in return for the privileges granted. 5% to the Directors, 70% to the shareholders as dividend. The Bank to present monthly balance sheets. The new Bank to take charge of the liquidation of the old National Bank, paying the judicial deposits, arranging the Brazilian loan, etc.

The Uruguay Times says—

"Rumours have been rife this week concerning all kinds of financial schemes to relieve the crisis. Amongst other things it has been stated by several newspapers that negotiations have been opened with the London and River Plate Bank, whereby that bank is to be conconceded the right of issuing minor notes, and also to have once more all the Judicial Deposits, these being two of the privileges granted to the National Bank. Though we have no doubt the market would only be too glad to know that the London Bank was coming to the rescue—for any scheme, entertained by that soundly managed institution would surely be a serious and feasible one—we have cogent reasons for believing that there is not the slightest ground for the rumoured negotiations between the Government and the Bank in the sense referred to. It is said that Mr. Noetzlin, representing Mr. Cassel and others, has interviewed the President of the Republic concerning the above negotiation with the London Bank and that he and his syndicate are interested in the affair together with the London Bank, and add that should this scheme be brought to a head Dr. Ramirez will return to the Finance Ministry. We do not believe there is the slightest foundation for these rumours. Another financial scheme that has occupied the public for some days refers to the proposed coining of two million silver dollars to be negotiated with Chile.

THE ANGLO-ARGENTINE BANK.

The extraordinary meeting of the Anglo-Argentine Bank was held at Cannon-street Hotel on 30th May, at which Mr. Sampson S. Lloyd (the chairman) presided. The following resolutions were passed:

That the capital of the company be reduced from £1,000,000 divided into 100,000 shares of £10 each, to £950,000.

The Chairman explained that contrary to their expectations at the last meeting their losses were now estimated at £12,000 more than the £30,000 which it was then thought would have covered them. The loss upon paper money at present gold premium would be some £13,000 more.

The assets in liquidation had turned out worse than expected.

For instance, there is Rodger, Best, and Co. Our manager on the other side had leave to buy their paper for the purpose of exchange. We made the most careful inquiries about them in all directions, and we were assured that they were a very wealthy firm. Since then prospects seem to indicate that instead of getting 20s in the pound we shall only get £2,000 out of 9,000.

The chairman in recommending the writing off of the various losses said:

"Our business is promising on a small scale; that is, we have a very good connection at Montevideo, and some connexion left in Buenos Aires, and I believe our business has the nucleus of being a prosperous one if we can only get rid of this burden."

Mr. Bendon moved:

"That immediate steps be taken for the voluntary winding up of the company.

He considered the capital too small to continue the business advantageously in a country like Argentina in its present condition. Mr. Van Raalte spoke against the amendment and said. 'By cautious and careful management he was quite sure the shareholders would do a great deal better by continuing this bank than by liquidating it. There might be an opportunity to amalgamate this bank with another bank.'

Mr. Bruce Gardyne asked Mr. Bendon to consider whether by pressing his amendment he would not rather be forcing the hand of the chairman into a voluntary winding up which might materially interfere with their chances of sale or amalgamation. He might say that he had taken upon himself, as representing a very large number of shares, to communicate with an intimate friend of his, who was a director of a bank in South America, and he was authorised by him to say that they were willing to negotiate as to the purchase of, or amalgamation with, the Anglo-Argentine Bank. If the directors were gently urged in that direction, they might be willing to place themselves in communication with the bank to which he alluded, and perhaps, by that means, they might be able to raise themselves out of their present difficulties. He, therefore, appealed to Mr. Bendon to withdraw his amendment.

The amendment was however put and lost, only five voting in its favor. The substantive resolution was carried by acclamation.

PROVINCIAL NEWS

Letters from San Juan state that influenza there has assumed the dimensions of an epidemic. Half the population is in bed coughing, and the other half is sneezing and preparing to gracefully succumb to the fashionable complaint. There have already been several fatal cases, amongst others a provincial senator, Mr. Manuel Alvarado, a gentleman well-known, esteemed, and regretted. Influenza has made its appearance in other provinces, but nowhere has it declared itself with so much violence as in San Juan, except perhaps San Luis, where the Governor and ministers are still coughing and sneezing and unable to attend to their business.

A sad and eloquent illustration of the disastrous consequences which sometimes, we may say often, attend lawsuits all over the world, but particularly in these latitudes, is reported from Villaguay. The death has just occurred there of Mr. Nicholas Morizon, once a wealthy proprietor. He was beggared by a lawsuit in reference to one of his properties, and died in abject poverty in a house which once belonged to him, but which is now the property of a local attorney.

We are indebted to our energetic little contemporary the Amigo del Pueblo of Concordia for the following extract from a letter dated Mercedes, Corrientes:—"Mercedes to-day is quiet. A calm prevails: one of those calms which precede the storm. What do you think our authorities are up to now? They want to organize a battalion here, which of course would be a constant menace to our political rights and freedom. We have already had very sad experience of battalions of this kind, under Toledo Vera and Nuñez. I may mention that the officers and armament are already here. The next thing to be done is to recruit the men. The excitement and anxiety of the people of Mercedes are very great. Furthermore the district is infested with bandits. Outrages of all kinds are painfully frequent. The police are useless."

This is indeed a very bad state of affairs. Corrientes is rapidly falling to the same level as Santa Fe, where the number of outrages is simply appalling. It is difficult to see what object the provincial government has in organizing a battalion in Mercedes. In the first place the proceeding is illegal, only the National Government being authorized to raise troops. President Pellegrini ought to look into this question, which is a very serious one, at least for the settlers in Corrientes.

THE GREAT SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

Twenty years ago the Southern Railway had recently opened the sections from Chascomus to Dolores, from Salado to Las Flores, and from Las Flores to Azul. The total mileage including those sections was 270 miles.

The Buenos Ayres terminus of the Railway at Plaza Constitucion was in those days a somewhat straggling, dilapidated, primitive, and inconvenient patchwork of insignificant buildings, without the slightest pretension to architectural or aesthetic features. The produce market of the South was then held in the Plaza Constitucion, into which bullock carts were admitted, and in wet weather both the railway station and the Plaza presented many of the characteristics of a mud swamp. The buildings which skirted the Plaza were in those times as mean as the railway station itself, which is saying a good deal.

The locomotive and carriage works of those days were at South Barracas, and were in keeping with the rest of the structures which did duty for the head quarters' establishment of the Great Southern Railway. At about that period the accommodation which the South Plaza afforded for the traffic of the railway was found inadequate, and long rows of sheds had been erected in the swampy lands at Sola at present covered by the locomotive, carriage and wagon works of the railway.

Outside Buenos Ayres the railway was in much the same primitive stage of development. The line was a single one throughout, the stations were unpretentious and with a minimum of accommodation or convenience, and night running of passenger trains had not been introduced. By leaving Buenos Aires in the early morning, the longest run on the line—to Azul 198 miles—could be covered in something more than twelve hours, giving an average velocity of 15 miles an hour. Incidentally it may be mentioned that Indian raids were not unknown in the camps on the Buenos Ayres side of Azul, while the settlers beyond that town were popularly supposed to employ the time which the care of their cattle did not occupy, in waging a sort of guerrilla warfare with the Indians.

In this year of grace 1892 the Southern line extends to close upon 1300 miles, and with the opening of the section between Balcarce and Necochea expected to take place about the middle of July next, a total mileage of about 1360 miles will be open to public service, showing an average increase in mileage of 80 miles per annum from 1878 to 1892. The section of 54 miles between Buenos Ayres and Altamirano is double line, a portion of which is ballasted with stone in replacement of the former black earth. The terminal station at Plaza Constitucion is a handsome and commodious structure, apparently suitable in all respects for the purposes of the terminal station of a large railway system. Both passenger and goods station are provided with modern labour-saving and other applicances, and may be said to be generally up to date.

The suburban stations near B. Ayres are neat structures with all necessary conveniences, and at principal points throughout the railway accommodation has been provided with a liberal hand. Signalling arrangements, including interlocking, and the concentration of levers in signal cabins, have been immensely improved since the seventies; the busier parts of the line are worked on absolute block principles, and the railway is fenced for the greater part of its length.

A very noticeable development has taken place in the rolling stock of the line during the period selected for comparison. The increase in the distances to be traversed made it indispensable to run night trains, and the old short four-wheel day carriages have been almost superseded by six-wheel and bogie carriages furnished with lavatory and other accommodation, and the night carriages with sleeping berths. The speed of trains is about double that attained in the seventies, and there is no comparison in the matter of comfortable travel. —R. Plate Railway News.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

Mr. John Glasgow, general manager of the Santa Fé and Cordoba Railway, entertained this week a party of gentlemen connected with railway work, amongst whom were Mr. George Hunt and Mr. Hume. The party left Buenos Aires on Monday and had a pleasant trip over Mr. Glasgow's Railway, which is progressing very favourably.

We take the following from the Railway News:

The receipts of seven of the principal Argentine railways published this week amount, on a mileage of 3895, to £56,988, and for the corresponding week of 1891, on 3,157 miles of open line, to £43,334, the increased mileage being 23·28 per cent in 1892, and the gross earnings 31·5 per cent higher than last year.

The average receipts per mile of the seven railways for the week were £14.12s. 7d. compared with £13 14s. 6d. last ysar, an improvement in the current year equal to 6·6 per cent.

The approximate value of the £ sterling was $15.70 in 1892 and $17.35 in 1891. The appreciation in value of currency this year being 10·5 per cent, or nearly 4 per cent better than the increased per-centage of earnings per mile for the week.

Mr. H. G. Cabrett has been appointed Personal Assistant to the General Manager of the Central Argentine Railway. Mr. Cabrett entered railway life on the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway, in which service he continued for 11 years, during the last 8 years in the managerial offices. In 1888 he was selected by the Argentine Great Western Railway Board as assistant General Manager of that railway, an appointment which he filled till 1890, when he joined the staff of the contractors of the Transandine Railway, by whom the line was worked prior to the English Company assuming charge.

Mr. A. W. Leighton, formerly of the Buenos Aires Great Southern and Great Southern of Santa Fe and Cordoba Railways, has been appointed as Agent in Buenos Aires for the North East Argentine Railway Company.

Mr. Leonard Cooper, of the General Manager's Department, Buenos Aires and Rosario Railway, who has, after five years' service, obtained leave of absence for a period of four months, proceeds to England in the Aconcagua.

SUGAR CANE PLANTING.

July 4th.

Mr. Editor,

Could you place me in communication with the writer E. G. who wrote the short but very interesting article on the above subject which appeared in your issue of Sunday 3rd inst.

A Daily Reader.

Ed. Note. We have unfortunately lost his address.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The cold snap in the weather yesterday gave the State of Sneeze a fillip, and there was a great spurt in pocket-handkerchiefs. Frost and Locusts have appeared arm in arm in the Santa Fé colonies. Rather queer bedfellows. Farmers and sheep-farmers are in a between-the-Devil-and-the-deep-sea frame of mind. They want rain, but fear that, at this time of year, too much of it is only too probable; with floods and frost as 'llapa'.

The Senate met yesterday. The Constitutional Committee reported on the state of siege, advising that it be raised. Senator Igarzabal presented a Bill for Electoral Reform. Dr. C. Figueroa was recognised as Senator for Catamarca by 12 to 10 votes. Senator Igarzabal's motion that the minority of the House can take steps to compel the attendance of members by means of fines was passed. The House held a secret sitting to approve appointments made by the Executive during the recess.

Mails for the Clyde close to-day at 11.30; for West Coast (via Montevideo) at 3 p.m.; for the Matteo Bruzzo to-morrow, at noon.

Shopkeepers are rubbing their hands at the returning health of the Gold Eagle. This is a bad sign for their customers' pockets.

There is a terrific pow-wow in theatre circles, owing to the new 5 per cent tax on the gross receipts of all places of public amusement. When is this eternal fresh taxation to come to an end? Said the Raven.—Never; more taxation till Doomsday.

An extraordinary thing occurred the other day at La Plata. A State pensioner died. This is the first case of the kind on record. The head of the Pension Office was so astounded when he heard the news that he refused to believe it until he saw the Civil Registry. It has hitherto been an immutable law of Nature in this country that a State pensioner never dies; and this precedent at La Plata is a bad one which State "pensionistas" should take care not to repeat.

On Monday night the Anglo American Society gave their Fourth of July Ball. The ball was crowded and every one voted the affair a complete success. We congratulate the committee on the way it went off, there not being a single hitch in the proceedings.

The raffle for Las Golondrinas Chalet at Lomas de Zamora is definitely fixed for November 6th. Tickets $10 each.

We beg to call the attention of the members of the English Literary Society to the Special General Meeting which will be held to-night to consider the business mentioned in the advertisement.

It is quite apparant that the juvenile 'protagonista' of the following story must be a citizen of this part of the world: 'The Sunday School was in debt and the superintendent got up an excursion to wipe it out, and was successful. At the next meeting of the Sunday school the superintendent congratulated the scholars on what had been accomplished. "Now, children", said he, rubbing his hands, "we are out of debt; what shall we do?" "Get in again!" piped up a shrill voice from a small boy on the front seat.

There was n't any further news about the elections at home yesterday. In Ireland rioting in Louth and Limerick was reported. Matters in Afghanistan are beginning to look ugly, and if the Grand Old Man wins he will have a question with Russia to lead off with. The news from Brazil is exciting. The Italians in San Paulo appear to have expressed their opinion of their adopted country in uncomplimentary terms, and were charged and shot down by the troops for their pains.

King Christian I. of Denmark, whose golden wedding was recently celebrated all over the North, is a well preserved, handsome man of seventy-four. It is from the Queen of Denmark that her three daughters—the Princess of Wales, the Empress of Russia, and the Duchess of Cumberland—derive their beauty and their perennial youth. Queen Marie, at the age of three score years and ten, is still a very handsome woman, with flashing eyes and lively manners, which cause her to look at least fifteen years younger than her actual age.

We received yesterday a valuable volume that will help us through the third quarter of the year. We allude to Kraft's Guia, which has now become quite indispensable in every office.

Our philanthropic countryman Major de Barritt informs us that, in addition to the present chacra in Lujan, he requires a large chacra to find employment for persons who are waiting for situations. Having a first-class "capataz," he would be glad to hear of an estancia or large chacra which could be worked upon favourable terms for both parties.

The green-grocers at Montevideo are still on strike, and there is now a Midshipman Easy triangular duel going on; they fire at the Municipality, the latter at the Government, and the last named at both. All the vegetarians in the city are living on bread, water, and dried peas, and are getting as thin as walking sticks or State-school teachers, which are about the same in circumference.

We have received a letter from R. B. M. insisting on the propriety of a court of enquiry at the French Consulate with reference to the explosion aboard the La Plata. This is certainly a matter in which French people will act best according to their judgment without any advice from their neighbors.

The Club de Gimnasia y Esgrima is one of the most spirited and patriotic institutions in the country. It is now getting up a Grand Gymnastic Tournament to celebrate the discovery of America. The pupils at all the State and private schools will be invited to take part in it, and the prizes will be gold, silver and bronze medals and honourable mentions. We wish the Tournament the most brilliant success.

George Augustus Sala gives the following valuable hints as to how to deal with insomnia. Our remedy is to read a Memoria to Congress, or a London chairman's speech at a yearly meeting of some Argentine Company. It never fails. But hear what George Augustus says:—"Everybody has his nostrum for sleeplessness. Dr. Franklin's was to get into another bed. Sir Henry Thompson, I have been told, if he is unable to sleep, gets up and paints. Dr. Benjamin Richardson prescribes a boiled Portugal onion for supper. But may I be permitted to put in a word in favour of a very old French antidote for insomnia—"le verre d'eau, to wit? This is something more than "eau sucrée, the beverage being flavoured with a few drops of orange-flower water. The effect, to me, has always been inexpressibly soothing and reposeful. Try it."

The hull of the wrecked Brazilian war vessel Solimoes has been found by the indefatigable Mr. Lussich, with the bodies of most of the crew that sank in her.

Brazil has 'denounced' the Sanitary Convention she made with the River Plate Republics, which will expire in August next year. The Convention in question has been denounced on all hands since it was signed, and has been productive of more swearing than sanitation. Better knock it on the head at once, and let each of the four republics take care of its own health as best it can.

'Now, sir,' said Mr. Badger-Bustle, Q. C., 'do you, on your oath, swear this is not your writing?' 'I think not,' replied the witness. 'No thinking, sir! Does it resemble your writing?' 'I can't say it does.' 'Do you swear it does not resemble your writing?' 'I do.' 'Do you take your oath this writing does not resemble yours?' 'Ye-es.' 'Now, how do you know?' 'Cause I can't write!'

Entre Rios is at the old work—trying to raise the wind in a terms-cash sense—to meet its domestic expenses. The security offered is not what can be called tempting, as it is based on overdue taxes, stamped paper, fines and "boletos de marca." The amount asked for is only 2½ millions of strictly inconvertible paper money. Rain is wanted in the Argentine Mesopotamia as badly as ready cash, and it is feared that the early-sown crops are already as good as lost.

Oh! Inspector Thiriot has discovered another hair-standing scandal in the Provincial Bank of Cordoba, which is no longer "Free," except in its way of doing business.

A 'vecino' living at 934 Calle Artes frightened the whole neighbourhood on Monday night by firing three revolver shots into a legion of cats that were murdering his sleep.

Mr. Gustavo Niederlein is going to Corrientes, Misiones, Formosa and the Chaco to collect specimens of the natural wealth of those regions for Uncle Sam's Show at Chicago. A morning colleague advises tourists, sportsmen, explorers and photographers to make up a party and join him. This is a capital suggestion.

Here's a valuable domestic hint from a leading lamplighter; we beg pardon, a leading lamp merchant: "Don't wash your chimneys, but wipe them clean with dry cloths." Itis the damp that does it. The chimneys absorb moisture, and are damp in anywise when lighted, steam is generatedin the pores, and we all know what steamdoes—an explosion occurs. That is why the chimneys fly so when they break. If you must wash them, dry them thoroughly in the sun or near the stove or furnace before using. Chimneys kept in the kitchen get damp on wash-

Hayward's Paste Dip
The best test of a Sheep Dip
PRACTICAL RESULTS OF USING A RELIABLE DIP WHICH CURES THE SCAB AND IMPROVES THE WOOL.

The following testimonial is received from Messrs Ronald & Rogers, the celebrated Brokers for River Plate wools at Liverpool who sold a number of lots of wool from some of the largest Estancieros in the River Plate.

COPY TESTIMONIAL

Telegraphic Address—Ronald, Liverpool, Exchange Chambers, Bixteth Street, Liverpool, 19th Feb. 1892.

Dear Sirs—
Amongst the River Plate Wools which we have sold here this season, our attention has been called to several clips which had been treated with Hayward's "Paste" Sheep Dip, and we have pleasure in testifying to the freedom from scab, and handsome lustrous appearance of these wools, which we consider materially assisted in their obtaining such very good prices.

In the "Daily Post" of September 2 appears a leading article—evidently from an analytical expert—showing that after 15 minutes "draw," Indian Tea yields 17·73 of tannin, while from China comes only 7·93. What this means few know, but those troubled with indigestion may realise in part by use of True China Tea for one week.

ON 'CHANGE.
Tuesday, July 5th.
The gold market ruled very hard this morning. One of the direct causes of the rise was the rumor that the R.M.S. Clyde will take a heavy consignment of gold to-morrow. Twelve thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at $51.80, rose, and closed at $52, say 219¼ % premium. Seventeen hundred sovereigns were sold; the price opened at 16.05 and closed at 16.15, say 220¼ % premium. The speculation ruled very firm all morning and a stiff rising tendency was remarkable in the market.
Patriotic Bonds were more active today; about half a million changed hands: the price for cash opened at 70.40 and for end of month at 70.60. Internal Bonds were steady at 64¼. Catalinas were weak, but active, closing at 9¼. La Plata Cedulas tottered and closed heavy all round at 31.40 to 31.50.
Exchange was slightly firmer to-day at yesterday's rates. Discounts continued easy. The Banco de la Nacion has altered its rates, viz.—On small bills up to $10,000 with 10 % amortization, a charge of 9 % interest per annum; farmers' bills up to $40,000 with 25 % amortization, at 9 % interest per annum; on discounts with 50 % amortization, 8 % per annum; on 'letras' with full amortization, 7 % per annum; on commercial discounts, 6 % per annum. One of the novel features in the above is the discount of small bills with 10 % amortization, an excellent idea.
The following telegram from Antwerp will be read with interest:—
Antwerp, 5th July 1892.
Rosario wheat f.o.g. 15½ francs c.i.f.
Entre Rios do. do. 15.75 fcs. c.i.f.
The above prices of wheat show a fall of 7 francs since the beginning of the season.
In answer to "Subscriber," we beg to state that the average price of gold was 329.95% premium in May and 317.66% premium in July.
A few shares of the Banco de Italia were sold to day at 86 gold: there are buyers for round amounts at 85.
Mrs. Mercedes de Anchorena has bought 4 leagues of land in the district of Tapalquen, near the "ejido" of the town, at the rate of 100,000$% per league: the property belonged to Mr. Villanueva.
The agent of the Messageries Maritimes has applied for renewal of packet privileges in favor of the steamer La Plata. With regard to this steamer we hear that the owner of the tug Fortuna has applied for an embargo to meet salvage claims.
The Board of Public Works has accepted the proposal of M. L. Cadieu to build the bridge across the Rio IV. in the Province of San Luis, at the rate of 144$ per square metre of wood employed and 0.65$ per kilogram of iron.
The Government has sold to Mr. V. Peña for 50 % of their nominal value the rights it has against the colonists of the Caroya Colony for backward rents. These rents amount to $6,009$, not including 33,773$ that will soon fall due.

On the 14th. the American Minister Mr. Pitkin leaves for Europe.
The arrivals of wool at the Plaza Constitucion are about the average of late. Prices are very low. Mr. Parera sold a 'pasto fuerte' parcel for 6½$ per 10 kilos. This kind of wool last fortnight was worth 7½$. The fall in prices may be calculated at 1$ per 10 kilos in the last four weeks.
Mr. Callar, of Messrs. Masurel Fils, leaves to-morrow in the R.M.S. Clyde. Nearly all the French wool buyers are gone; the Germans remain in the field.
Wool advices from France are most unfavorable. The stock of combed wools is reported heavy. Manufacturers are buying from day to day and do not lay in any stock. Combed prime of Buenos Ayres is Maize advices from Europe are satisfactory; meantime all other raw materials are falling. Maize owes its high price to its splendid quality.

The cheques of the Provincial Bank closed at 45 ⅝ discount to-day; those of the National Bank at 20 o/o discount. The Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank were done at 15 % of their nominal value.

It was known this evening that the R.M.S. Clyde will take gold to Europe. It was said that two private hanks ship the precious metal, but the amount remained an incognita. This news, however, did not put up the price of gold this afternoon.

The gold market ruled weak at the second ring; about eight thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow: the price opened at 51.90 and closed at 51.70, say 2174 ½ premium. Sovereigns closed at $16.05, say 2181 ½ premium. Patriotic Bonds were very active, closing at 70.30. Internal Bonds closed at 64. La Plata Cedulas were somewhat firmer.

EXTRACT OF TOBACCO.
According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks alike ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.
Directions for use
One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.

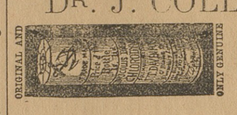
DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S



CHLORODYNE
COUGHS COLDS, ASTHMA BRONCHITIS
IS THE GREAT SPECIFIC FOR DIARRHOEA, DYSENTERY, CHOLERA.
Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—Dr J Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff) Discovered a Remedy, to denote which he coined the word «Chlorodyne.» Dr Browne is the Sole Inventor, and as the composition of Chlorodyne cannot possibly be discoverrd by Analysis (organic substances defying elimination) and since the formula has never been published, it is evident that any statement to the effect that a compound is identical with Dr Browne's Chlorodyne must be false.
This caution is necessary, as many persons deceive purchasers by false representations.
Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—Vice Chancellor Sir W PAGE WOOD stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. BROWNE was undoubtedly the INVENTOR of CHLORODYNE, that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to—See «The Times,» July 13, 1864
Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne
Is the True Palliative in Neuralgia, Goat, Cancer, Toothache, Rheumatism
GENERAL BOARD of HEALTH, London, REPORT that it ACTS as a CHARM, one does generally sufficient.
Dr. GIBBON, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta, states: "Two Doses Completely Cured Me Of Diarrhœa.
Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne is a liquid medicine which assuages PAIN of every KIND, affords a calm, refreshing sleep, WITHOUT HEADACHE, and invigorates the nervous system when exhausted
Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne rapidly cuts short all attacks of EPILEPSY, SPASMS, COLIC, PALPITATION, HYSTERIA

HORSFORDS PHOSPHATIC BAKING POWDER
BARON LIEBIG, the world renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.
What a wonderful result is this !"

STEPHENS INKS
IMPORTANT NOTICE
Falsifications of Stephens well-known Blue Black Writing & Copying Fluids are now being sold in this town as the genuine inks. The original bottles which have contained Stephens' Inks are being refilled with the imitation and the trade-mark, labels and seal are very closely copied. The principal difference between the true and the forged label is that the lines and ornamentation in the red groundwork of the imitation are blurred and indistinct, instead of being sharp and clean as on Stephens' genuine labels. It is to be noted that the litre and half litre bottles of Stephens' genuine Inks have a patent cork attached consisting of a metarien with teeth into which a cork is fastened. The fraudulent bottles have no such cork. The fraudulent ink writes of a greenish blue colour and thickens in the inkstand very rapidly, whereas Stephens' genuine ink writes a strong blue colour and keeps perfectly fluid in the inkstand. Assist in the prevention of this fraud by destroying the bottles which have originally contained Stephen's genuine inks.
Stringent legal proceedings will at once be taken against all dealers selling the fraudulent inks.
